Analysis & opinion

What I liked most about this story is how exciting and interesting it was. The whole journey of adventure kept me ~~in~~ enjoyed so much that I was unable to ~~stop~~ ~~read~~ take any ~~break~~. The ~~an~~ characters were written in a way that felt real.

The most interesting character for me was Long John Silver. Even though he was villain of the story, I liked his smartness, ~~bravery~~ and cleverness. Sometimes I didn't know whether to hate him or admire him. His role ~~of~~ and personality made the story more fun and interesting.

Jim Hawkins, the main character, initially he was just a normal boy, but ~~by~~ the end of story he became brave and strong.

Stevenson's writing was realistic, it creates the realistic view in the reader's mind, the way he described the view, ship, sea and islands was appreciable. One line that showed the deep thought of writer ~~was~~ when Long John Silver said that "Them that die will be the lucky ones". This shows that writer created a character who wasn't afraid of any kind of danger and wanted to scare others.

Later, Jim ~~had~~ told Dr. Livesey that he would never forget what he saw on the island. This shows that how ~~much~~ scary the adventure was.

Overall, the book is full of lessons, adventures and brave characters.

I enjoyed it a lot.

personal Connection

Reading the book Treasure Island gave me different ^{perspective} ~~books~~. It is not just a story about treasure and pirates ~~in~~ it also teaches how to make tough decisions ~~and~~ ^{any} in ~~that~~ kind of situation and never to give up, no matter how tough the situation becomes. I felt like I ~~was~~ ^{was a} crewmate of Jim and watching ~~the~~ how he was facing all the dangers and surprises.

One thing I really liked was ^{how} Jim ~~stood~~ ^{stood} ^{his ground} on his own decision even when everything was going wrong. This shows that even in real life, we must stay strong and trust our decision as well as ^{believe in} ~~on ourselves~~ ourselves.

The characters and the action helped me ~~to~~ understand loyalty, courage and smart thinking are very important.

This story also opened my eyes to how quickly a person can betray his own friend when greed comes in them. This made me realise how important it is to stay calm and fair during chasing ~~a~~ goal.

I really felt a connection with Jim's journey. It showed me that sometimes we need to Step out of our comfort zone in order to grow and to achieve something bigger.

Overall it was a wake-up call to brave in the real world too, it made people look at things differently.
